right to access their school records and obtain official documents, implicitly allowing them to authorize a proxy to secure these records on their behalf. Additionally, the Civil Code of the Philippines (Republic Act No. 386) permits the delegation of authority through a Special Power of Attorney (SPA), which is commonly required when a proxy is appointed to act on behalf of the student in obtaining academic documents.

Section 1. An administrative due process refers to the procedural fairness that schools must provide to students before imposing formative intervention like suspensions or expulsions. It ensures students are treated fairly and have a chance to respond to accusations. Key elements include proper notice of charges, the right to a hearing, and a decision based on evidence.

Section 2. Disciplinary matters are those acts of students referred to in the College Student Manual that need formative intervention through Warning, Reprimand, Suspension, Exclusion or Expulsion. It is conducted if there is a complaint, letter, report or memo pertaining to an alleged commission of an act by any student of the College that may be considered as a misconduct, offense, infraction or violation of a policy, rule or regulation of the College.

Section 3. The procedure is aimed at determining whether a student, who is under investigation for the commission of an alleged misconduct, offense, infraction or violation of any of the college policies, rules or regulations, is liable or not; and if so, the proper formative intervention shall be meted, but if not, the case shall be dismissed.

The procedure is as follows:

A. Complain report

Section 1. The complaint, letter, report or memo (hereinafter referred to as “COMPLAINT”) may be made by any concerned or interested party, such as a student, a trainee, a parent, an employee, an office head, an administrator, TPC itself, and others. The parent or guardian may also assist his/her child/ward or directly complain on behalf of the student.

Section 2. In the exercise of its management prerogative, TPC through any of its office heads may, motu proprio or at its own initiative, request for or initiate an administrative investigation of a student. Moreover, if warranted by circumstances, TPC through any of its office heads, particularly the program head or dean of the concerned or affected student or students, motu proprio or acting upon a directive from a TPC higher official, may conduct an inquiry on any matter it may deem proper and necessary for fact-finding purposes, and if the results thereof require that a disciplinary administrative investigation be conducted, the office head concerned shall submit his/her memo or report with a request for such an investigation to be conducted by TPC.

Section 3. In fact, it is a serious obligation on the part of any College official or personnel to report immediately to his/her superior within 24 hours (personally or through memo or phone) or as soon as practicable any information or knowledge of an offense, wrongdoing, misconduct, or violation committed by his/her student.

Any complaint, letter, report or memo of an act, violation, misconduct or infraction committed by a student of the College requiring a disciplinary administrative investigation received by any official shall be forwarded to the Immediate Academic Head of that student. If the Immediate Academic Head is involved as the complainant or respondent, the complaint shall be forwarded to the Vice President for Academic Affairs (VPAA).

TPC STUDENT HANDBOOK v.04

3. Start of the Investigation

- a. Upon receiving an information or knowledge, or upon receipt of such complaint, the Immediate Academic Head or VPAA shall do any of the following:

- 1.) If the complaint is sufficient to initiate a disciplinary administrative investigation (that is, the alleged facts are clear and there are available sufficient evidence), the Immediate Head will immediately refer the matter to the Director of the Office of the Student Affairs and Services by way of a report or memo.
- 2.) If the complaint appears to be lacking clear factual allegations, parties involved and/or evidence, the Immediate Academic Head shall immediately conduct a fact-finding inquiry to further clarify certain matters, or obtain additional facts. If the initial findings establish a conclusion of a probable commission of the alleged misconduct, offense, infraction or violation that requires a disciplinary administrative investigation, he/she will submit his/her findings in a report or memo to the SAS Director.

- 3.) If there is no particular complaint to an incident, but the Immediate Academic Head has received a report thereof or such an incident has come to his/her knowledge, he/she shall immediately conduct a fact-finding inquiry in order to protect the rights and interests of the University and of the affected individuals. If the result thereof establishes a conclusion of a probable commission of a misconduct, offense, infraction or violation that requires a disciplinary administrative investigation, he/she will submit his/her findings in a report or memo to the Director of the Student Affairs and Services.
4. Duty of the Director of the Student Affairs and Services

Later on, if the finding is that a misconduct, offense, infraction or violation had probably been committed by a certain student, the Immediate Academic Head shall make a written memo/report thereof to the Director of the Office of the Student Affairs and Services for appropriate action.
- 2.) If the alleged facts are clear and there is sufficient evidence that respondent probably committed the alleged misconduct, offense, infraction or violation, or the Immediate Academic Head already submitted a subsequent memo or report with a finding that the alleged misconduct, offense, infraction or violation had probably been committed by respondent, the Director of the Student Affairs and Services shall do any of the following:

- a.) If the misconduct, offense, infraction or violation is sanctionable by WARNING or REPRIMAND, the Office of the Student Affairs and Services shall be the Investigating Officer and shall proceed with the conduct of the administrative disciplinary investigation, starting from issuance of the Notice of Investigation addressed to complainant and respondent, copy furnished the offices of the

President and VP Academic Affairs.

- b.) If the misconduct,
offense, infraction or violation is sanctionable by SUSPENSION, EXCLUSION or EXPULSION, the Director of the

refer the matter
by memo to the Section 1. At the start or at any stage of the investigation process before the final decision, the Director of the Student Affairs and Services, motu proprio or upon recommendation of the Vice President for Academic Affairs, the College President or the Board of Discipline, may place a student to be investigated or already under investigation under preventive suspension for a period not prohibited by the Commission on Higher Education rules and regulations.

Section 2. The preventive suspension period served to a student shall be deducted from the penalty of suspension that may later be imposed on the student, if any. TPC STUDENT HANDBOOK v.04 is complaining without assistance from his/her parent/s or guardian, the Board of Discipline shall notify his/her parent/s or guardian accordingly at their last known address per school records. If the parent/s or guardian cannot be contacted or fail to come during the investigation despite the notice, the investigation shall proceed accordingly.

E. Initial Conference/Hearing

Section 1. During the initial conference/hearing, the Office of the Student Affairs and Services shall determine whether there is a prima facie case to proceed further with the investigation or dismiss the complaint or terminate the proceedings. It is well to note that the veracity or truthfulness of the allegations of complainant and respondent will only be determined by the Board of Discipline when he/she renders his/her decision in the resolution. Moreover, the issues will be clarified, stipulations and admissions will be made, or the parties will explore the possibility of settling amicably the personal claims of the complainant, if any, without prejudice to the respondent being investigated further to determine whether or not respondent is liable for having violated any of the College policies, rules or regulations, and the appropriate formative intervention thereto, if any.

Section 2. In the event that before or during the scheduled initial conference/hearing respondent admits in writing the allegations against him/her, or the facts are clear to the Board of Discipline, the case may be deemed submitted for decision based on the complaint and the answer unless the Board of Discipline will require submission of position papers.

F. Summary Judgement

Section 1. If on the basis of the documents submitted (such as the letter, report, answer, supporting papers and other evidence), the Board of Discipline finds that there is already sufficient basis to render judgment (as when the facts and issues are already clear to the Board of Discipline or when there is admission of guilt), it may immediately render summary judgment during the initial conference, or it may consider the case submitted for decision, and the parties shall be informed accordingly of the resulting written resolution.

G. Judgement Based on Position Papers

Section 1. Whenever summary judgment is not appropriate, the Board of Discipline shall direct the parties to the case to simultaneously submit their position papers with written statements or affidavits of witnesses and other supporting evidence within three (3) working days from date of the initial conference/hearing where the directive is given, or if given later after from notice of the order, after which the case shall be deemed submitted for decision. If one party refuses or fails to submit his/her position paper and additional supporting evidence, the same shall be deemed a waiver on the part of that party to present further evidence, and the case shall be decided based on whatever documents or evidence found in the record.

Section 2. In case the written statements of witnesses and parties are not notarized, the individuals concerned shall be required to appear before the Board of Discipline to affirm or swear on the veracity of their written allegations.

H. Judgement After Further Hearing

Section 1. Where the Board of Discipline finds that there are complicated factual issues involved which cannot be resolved through position papers, or which need further clarification for better understanding, or there are other witnesses who may be called or presented to testify to shed light on certain factual issues, it shall conduct further hearing. The Board of Discipline, if necessary, shall direct the parties and other persons to appear before it to answer classificatory questions. Any employee or student who refuses to attend and testify in the hearing shall be reported to the Office of the Vice President for Administration or HRMD or Office of the Student Affairs and Services for appropriate action. For this purpose, the Board of Discipline will then proceed to ask questions first to complainant and his/her witnesses, and second to respondent and his/her witnesses. After a witness has been asked by the Board of Discipline, any of the contending parties or their counsel, if represented, may examine further the witness by submitting written questions to the Board of Discipline, who will then read the questions to the witness for his answers. However, the Investigator may allow the counsel to directly ask the questions to the witness. Minutes summarizing the proceedings shall be in writing and signed by the Board of Discipline, the parties, and their counsels, if any.

I. Resolution of the Case, Finality of Resolution/Decision, Motion for Reconsideration, and Appeal.

Section 3. If respondent is found liable, the possible formative intervention that may be recommended may either be Warning, Reprimand, Suspension, Exclusion or Expulsion. However, if a case involves theft, non-liquidation of funds, actual damages resulting from respondent's act or negligence, or analogous cases, the resolution or decision may include the directive to return the stolen object or pay its value, or pay a specific sum of money.

working days from receipt of the motion or appeal within which to file his/her Comment or Opposition to the said motion or appeal. After the lapse of the period to submit the Comment or Opposition, with or without the opposition, the Office of the College President shall review the records of the case and render decision based on the evidence adduced during the investigation and the applicable laws, policies, rules and/or regulations, either affirming, reversing, modifying, or setting aside the resolution of the Board of Discipline and render a new one, or directing whatever the College President may deem necessary and proper.
